

United States/Australia
Bi-lateral Discussions on Plant Health
Tenaya Lodge at Fish Camp
Yosemite National Park, California
October 8, 9 & 10, 2002

Tentative Agenda

October 8:

- 0900: Introduction of Delegations
- 0915: Review of Agenda
- 0930: AU Issue: Cottonseed – Status Review and Future Needs
- 10:00 US Processed Animal Feed –
- 10:30 US – Karnal Bunt of Wheat – New Directons
- 11:00 AU cherries – Status of PRA
- 11:30 Lunch
- 13:00 US Cherries - Harmonization of Fumigation Requirements
- 14:00 AU Citrus – Expansion of Riverland, Needs for Bourke
- 15:00 US citrus – California – Changes to Export Protocol
Florida – Comments on Australian Issue Paper
- 16:00 Review of Action Items
- 16:30 Adjournment

October 9:

- 09:00 AU tomatoes – Glasshouse vrs Field Grown
- 09:30 US Stonefruits – Status update, information needed
- 10:00 AU Mango PRA – Status update
- 10:30 US Grape Exports: AU Comments on Current Program
Scheduling Program Review
- 11:30 Lunch
- 13:00 AU: APHIS Policy on produce from “Generally Infested” Fruit Fly Areas
- 13:30 US: Procedures for US Sweet Corn
- 14:00 US: Corn Grain IRA
- 14:30 US: AU/NZ Apple update;
- 15:30 Review of Action Items
- 16:00 Adjournment

October 10:

- AM: Field visits to Stonefruit orchards, packing facilities
- PM: Free Time

United States/Australia
Bi-lateral Discussions on Plant Health
Tenaya Lodge at Fish Camp
Yosemite National Park, California
October 8, 9 & 10, 2002

Participants:

United States Department of Agriculture:

Alan Green, Head, Phytosanitary Issues Management, Riverdale, MD
Wilmer Snell, Trade Director, Phytosanitary Issues Management, Riverdale,
MD Karen Ackerman, Trade Director, Phytosanitary Issues Management,
Riverdale, MD Michael Guidici Pietro, Trade Specialist, PPQ, San Francisco,
CA

Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry - Australia:

Bryan Stynes, Head, Plant Biosecurity, Canberra
Christopher Hood, Senior Manager, Plant Biosecurity, Canberra
Jeanine Crowther, Manager, Horticultural Programs, AQIS, Canberra